MARKET BROILERS ORDERS DUE!

Students interested in showing market broilers at the Uvalde County Junior Livestock Show (UCJLS) must order their chicks through the following link: Market Broiler Order Form. All chicks come from a single hatchery, ensuring every participant starts on an even playing field.

Market broilers are a great entry project, especially for families who may not have space for larger livestock. They're easy to handle, cost is relatively low, housing is simple, pens are lightweight, and at the end of the project, they provide meat for the table.

Raising broilers is an excellent first step for youth to gain experience, responsibility, and confidence in animal care while participating in UCJLS. Contact Jill Cox at 830-333-5777 for more information.
